

WEBSITE AND ONLINE SERVICES

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's website	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the website, to generate statistics of activities on the website for marketing purposes, and to identify and correct any errors on the website. Names and job titles published on the website may appear in statistics and analyses of searches on the website, the purpose of which is to optimise the search function of the website.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The processing of names etc. published on the website is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interests justifying the processing are to generate statistics of activities on the website for marketing purposes and optimise and customise the use of the website in order to enhance the user experience. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Names and job titles published on the website may appear in statistics and analyses of searches on the website for as long as the name or job title appears on the website.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The Bankruptcy Portal (in Danish: Konkursportalen)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive) – Confidential personal data	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the Bankruptcy Portal, to generate statistics of activities on the Bankruptcy Portal for marketing purposes. Personal data (non-sensitive) and confidential data are processed for the purpose of creating a profile for processing claims lodged with a bankruptcy estate.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is the practice of the legal profession. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Personal data that are processed in connection with the creation of a profile will be erased not later than 1 month after the profile is no longer connected to a case at the Bankruptcy Portal or Caseview.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
			CPR numbers (identification numbers) are processed under the authority of section 11(2), point (4) of the Danish Data Protection Act.		Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The AB18 Guide	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the AB18 Guide, to generate statistics of activities and for marketing purposes.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
E-compliance	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of E-compliance to generate statistics of activities and for marketing purposes.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
			placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.		the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Caseview	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of the data subject's e-mail address is the creation of a profile and receipt of notifications. The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of Caseview, to generate statistics of the activities on the website and for marketing purposes	The data subject has consented to the processing of personal data for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.	The personal data that are processed in connection with the creation and administration of a profile will be erased no later than 2 months after the user is no longer connected to a subscription for the Bankruptcy Portal or Caseview. Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The Access to Documents Handbook (in Danish: Aktindsigtshåndbogen)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing is to manage the signing up for subscriptions as well as invoicing and any related administrative purposes. The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of	The processing of data for the purpose of a subscription is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to be able to deliver the requested access to the	The personal data will be erased no later than 24 hours after a user profile is deactivated and/or when the subscription is cancelled. Invoices are erased 5 years + current year after the invoice date.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
		the webpage, to generate statistics of activities on the Access to Documents Handbook and for marketing purposes	Access to Documents Handbook and to ensure the functionality of the website by placing necessary cookies. The processing of data for the purpose of invoicing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, see Article 6(1), point (c) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The data subject has consented to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. This applies, for example, to the newsletter and cookies.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years.	safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The Contract Management Tool (in Danish: Kontraktstyringsværktøjet)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	Personal data may appear in invoices and contracts for products and services stored in the Contract Management Tool.	The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to make the Contract Management Tool available.	Personal data in contracts that are stored are erased when the related user and owner of the contract is deactivated.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
The Time Limit Calculator (in Danish: Fristberegneren)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the Time Limit Calculator, to generate statistics of activities on the website and for marketing purposes. Personal data in the form of e-mail addresses are processed for the purpose of submitting calculations.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to submit calculations at the request of the data subject and to place necessary cookies for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. The personal data will be erased after submission of the calculation.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The Democracy Game (in Danish: Demokratispillet)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the game, to generate statistics of activities on the Democracy Game and for marketing purposes. The purpose of the processing of name, telephone number and e-mail address is to create a profile on the Democracy Game. The purpose of the processing of personal data is for the data subject to participate in the competition "The constitution speech of the future". This includes publication of Constitution Day speeches at Demokratispillet.dk.	The processing of personal data is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to enable the creation of a profile and the data subject's participation in the competition "The Constitution Day speech of the future", by, inter alia, publishing Constitution Day speeches at Demokratispillet.dk. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website. If the consent of the data subject has been obtained, the personal data of the	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Personal data will be erased after submission of calculations. Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. The personal data that are processed in the context of creating a user account at Demokratispillet.dk are erased when there have been no activities for 2 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
		The purpose of Constitution Day speeches published at Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten's social media accounts is to raise awareness of the competition.	data subject will be used on social media, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. If the consent of the data subject has been obtained, cookies will be placed for one or more purposes.	Personal data processed in connection with social media postings will be erased 3 years after their publication.	for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Personal data published on social media are only disclosed to the operator that facilitates the media in question. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Twitter: Twitter Inc. - LinkedIn: Microsoft Corporation - YouTube: Google Inc. - Facebook and Instagram: Meta Platforms Inc. When Meta Platforms Inc. uses personal data collected at Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's Facebook and Instagram accounts, Meta Platforms Inc. and Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten may be considered joint data controllers. In this connection, Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten refers to the data policy of Meta Platforms Inc.
Sagsoverblikket (overview of costs etc. of the client's case)	Visitors to the website: - Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of Sagsoverblikket, to generate statistics of activities and for marketing purposes. The purpose of the processing of the data subject's telephone number, name and e-mail address is to create a profile to allow access to Sagsoverblikket.	The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to create a profile so that the user can use Sagsoverblikket and does not have to create a user profile for each visit to Sagsoverblikket. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. The personal data are erased when there have been no activities for 2 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
					cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Sagsoverblikket HighQ (case overview HighQ Extranet)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	Name and e-mail address are processed for the purpose of making the extranet available.	The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interests justifying the processing are to generate statistics of activities on HighQ (the extra net) for marketing purposes, and to optimise and customise the use of the service in order to enhance the user experience.	The personal data are erased when the case to which the data are related is archived.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Tender Evaluation (in Danish: Tilbudsevaluering)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data is to give access to the evaluation tool Tilbudsevaluering.dk. The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the Tender Evaluation tool, to generate statistics of activities for marketing purposes, and to quickly identify and correct any errors that may arise in connection with the use of the Tender Evaluation tool.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Personal data processed in connection with the creation of a profile will be made anonymous after 2 years of inactivity.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures.

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
		Personal data (non-sensitive) are processed for the purpose of creating a profile.			In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Prequalification (in Danish: Prækvalifikation)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of personal data is to give access to the evaluation tool Prækvalifikation.dk. The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of Prequalification, to generate statistics of activities on the website and for marketing purposes and quickly to identify and correct errors arising through the use of Prequalification. Personal data (non-sensitive) are processed for the purpose of creating a profile.	The data subject has consented to the placing of cookies for one or more of these purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.	Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Personal data processed in connection with creating a profile will be made anonymous after 2 years of inactivity.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
The State Aid Guide (in Danish: Statsstøtteguiden.dk)	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	The purpose of the processing of data for booking of meetings is to manage the booking of meetings in practice. The purpose of the processing of personal data collected through cookies is to optimise and customise the use of the website.	The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the processing is to book a meeting at the request of the data subject.	Personal data that are processed for the purpose of booking meetings are erased no later than 100 days after collection of the personal data and 60 days after submission of a report Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten only discloses your personal data to the extent necessary and if there is a legal basis for doing so. It may be to public authorities, private businesses or persons, foundations, associations etc. depending on the nature of the matter. Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
			The data subject has consented to the processing of the personal data, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Necessary cookies are placed for the purpose of Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1), point (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest justifying the placing of necessary cookies is to ensure the functionality of the website.		processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures. In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
Docufy	Visitors to the website: – Personal data (non-sensitive)	Personal data are processed for the purpose of administering the creation of a user profile at Docufy as well as any relating administrative purposes.	The processing is necessary for Poul Schmith's/Kammeradvokaten's or a third party's pursuit of a legitimate interest, see Article 6(1)(f) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The legitimate interest of the processing is to make Docufy available and to place necessary cookies for the purpose of ensuring the functionality of the website The data subject has consented to the processing of personal data for one or more specific purposes, see Article 6(1), point (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation.	The personal data in the system are erased when a user is deactivated and/or when the subscription is terminated. 1 year after completion of the contact form for Enterprise Solutions, the personal data specified for that purpose will be erased. Personal data collected through cookies will be processed for a period of up to 3 years. Invoices are erased 5 years + current year after the invoice date.	Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten only discloses your personal data to the extent necessary and if there is a legal basis for doing so. It may be to public authorities, private businesses or persons, foundations, associations etc. depending on the nature of the matter. Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten passes on personal data to our data processors (e.g. IT suppliers). Transfers of personal data to non-EU/EEA countries, which have not been deemed safe by the European Commission, may take place through the provision of various transfer tools that provide appropriate safeguards. As an example we can mention conclusion of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses regarding data protection with the recipient and additional measures.

WEBSITE/ ONLINE SERVICES	DATA	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	PERIOD	RECIPIENTS
					In special cases, transfers to non-EU/EEA countries may also take place pursuant to Article 49(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g., in cases where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

ACTION	AUTHOR	APPROVED	BY DATE	VERSION
Updating of form regarding compliance with the duty to inform	SDFR	SDFR	19-07-2023	1.4
Information regarding personal data transfers to non-EU/EEA countries	LBEN	SDFR	07-12-2022	1.3
Updating of form regarding compliance with the duty to inform	SDFR	SDFR	17-08-2022	1.2
Updating of form regarding compliance with the duty to inform	LBEN/SDFR	SDFR	14-06-2022	1.1
Drafting of form regarding compliance with the duty to inform	MSKO	JNO	June 2019	1.0